7. What Personal Information Do We Collect Through Our Web Site?

Information You Volunteer. We collect the personal information you and others knowingly and voluntarily provide when you use our Web Site, or when you email us, or complete online forms or other on-line feature, including but not limited to your name, address, e-mail address, and information you provide if you contact us, for example to ask a question or make a comment.

Information Sent to Us by Your Web Browser. We may collect information that is sent to us automatically by your Web browser. This information typically includes but is not limited to your IP address, the identity of your Internet service provider, the name and version of your operating system, the name and version of your browser, the date and time of your visit, and the pages of our Web Site that you visit. Please check your browser if you want to learn what information your browser sends or how to change your settings. Generally, we do not link the information provided by your browser to information that identifies you by name. IP addresses do not include your name, e-mail address or other information that identifies you personally, but in some cases, this information can be used to identify you.

Cookies and Similar Technologies. We use "cookies" and other Web technologies to collect information and support certain features of our Web Site. The use of cookies is now commonplace on many websites. These are used to track user interaction with the site. We do this so we can identify which content is of greatest interest to our users, in order to allow us to deliver more meaningful content in the future. At no time do we collect (nor do we knowingly allow any third party to collect using our Web Site) any personal identifiable information of visitors to our Web Site within these cookies and they cannot be used in any way to identify you personally. For example, we may use these technologies to:

- a. Collect information about the ways people use our Web Site, including which pages of our Web Site they visit, which links they use, and how long they stay on each page in order to identify which content is of greatest interest to our users so that we are able to deliver more meaningful content in the future;
- b. To support the features and functionality of our Web Site, in order to save you the trouble of reentering information already in our database or to prompt the settings you established on previous visits;
- c. To personalize your experience when you use our Web Site; and
- d. To provide advertisements to users who have accessed our Web Site in the past in order to alert them to any new developments that are applicable to the content that the user accessed.

8. Do Not Track Disclosures

Generally, the information we collect using the Web technologies described in item number 7 above does not identify you personally, but we may link the information we collect using these Web technologies to other information that identifies you personally.

This activity information is sent directly to MGRB from its Web Site. It does not come from a third party, nor are third parties allowed to access this information. The only information third parties may access is the user's traffic history in accessing MGRB's Web Site. This information does not come MGRB. This information is collected by a browser or an outside search engine without MGRB's involvement or participation.

MGRB supports the Do Not Track browser setting. Do Not Track ("DNT") is a preference setting you can select in your browser to let the websites you visit know that you do not want them collecting certain information about you, including the use of "cookies." If there are any Third Party Applications on MGRB's website, MGRB cannot control whether these Applications support the Do Not Track browser setting. It is possible that such Applications do not support this setting and will collect information if you utilized these Applications from MGRB's website. By using these Third Party Applications, you acknowledge that MGRB has informed you that such use may result in your information being collected by the Third Party Applications, and you agree to hold MGRB harmless for any information collected by such Applications. For more details about Do Not Track, including how to enable or disable this preference, visit www.aboutcookies.org.

The DNT preference does not prevent us from accessing information that a user voluntarily provides to us. For more information regarding voluntarily submitted information, its collection, use or protection, see item number 7 above, and items 9 and 10 below.

If you do not wish to receive cookies, you may set your browser to reject or block cookies, which prevents our Web Site from collecting any tracking information. You may also set your browser to alert you when a cookie is placed on your computer, or you may delete our cookies as soon as you leave our Web Site. Although you are not required to accept our cookies when you visit our Web Site, if you set your browser to reject cookies, you may not be able to use all of the features and functionality of our Web Site.

These Terms of Use and the relationship between you and MGRB are governed by and construed in accordance with the federal laws of the United States of America and the internal laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, U.S.A., excluding conflict of laws provisions that would indicate the application of the laws of any other jurisdiction. ANY LEGAL ACTION OR PROCEEDING RELATING TO YOUR ACCESS TO, OR USE OF, THIS WEB SITE OR THESE TERMS OF USE SHALL BE INSTITUTED ONLY IN A STATE OR FEDERAL COURT LOCATED IN ALLEGHENY COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA, U.S.A. 20. General

As used in these Terms of Use, the term "including" means "including, but not limited to." Section headings are for reference purposes only and in no way define, limit, construe or describe the scope or extent of such section.

Our failure at any time to require performance of any provision of these Terms of Use or to exercise any right provided for herein shall not be deemed a waiver of such provision or such right. All waivers must be in writing and signed in ink by the party to be bound. Unless the written waiver contains an express statement to the contrary, no waiver of any breach of any provision of these Terms of Use or of any right provided for herein shall be construed as a waiver of any continuing or succeeding breach of such provision, a waiver of the provision itself, or a waiver of any right under these Terms of Use.

If any provision of these Terms of Use is held to be invalid or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, such invalidity or unenforceability shall not affect the validity or enforceability of the remaining provisions, and the court shall substitute for such provision the valid and enforceable provision that most closely approximates the intent and economic effect of such provision. The remaining provisions of these Terms of Use shall remain in full force and effect.

These Terms of Use set forth the entire understanding and agreement between us and supersede all prior understandings and agreements between you and MGRB with respect to the subject matter hereof.
